

JUL 22 1966

Cabell Phillips (center), author of "The Truman Presidency," is flanked by Mrs. India Edwards (left), former vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and Mrs. Louise Love, as he draws a name for a door prize (a copy of his book) at a party given in his honor yesterday by the American Newspaper Women's Club. Mrs. Love was chairman of the event.

-Star Staff

Newswomen Turn the Tables

Women of the Press turned the tables on a fellow journalist, Cabell Phillips, last evening, and subjected the newly-published author to an interview.

Phillips, a veteran newspaperman who has been on the Washington staff of the New York Times since 1945, is author of "The Truman Presidency: The History of a Triumphant Succession."

He was guest of honor at an autograph party last night staged by the American Newspaper Women's Club at its clubhouse.

Phillips, who accepted the invitation with the comment, "Of course, I'll gladly autograph books. I'll even give trading stamps," also agreed to field questions from the women at the 6:30 to 8:30 event.

The Truman volume, published by The MacMillan Company, is the first of a series of contemporary histories the firm has engaged Phillips to produce.

The new ANWVC president, Jean Ross Howard, was hostess, and Louise Love, reception chairman.